

National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment

Strengthening north to northwesterly winds will affect many north facing coastal districts of Northern Ireland later this afternoon and through the evening.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Wind

Valid from 15:00 on Tue, 05th Feb 2013 until 23:55 on Tue, 05th Feb 2013

North to northwesterly gales and locally severe gales will affect coastal areas later today and for a time tonight, with gusts reaching 65 mph, especially along the north coast and the North Down coast. Winds will subside around midnight.

The public should be aware of the potential for disruption, with winds strong enough to bring down some trees.
